

THE HERALD.

LUCIOUS BARRETT. LOCAL EDITOR.
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 8, 1880.

PERSONAL.

Our young friend, W. S. Gaines, of Fordville, dropped in on us Monday.
E. T. Williams, of the firm of Williams Bros., is in the city purchasing a large stock of Christmas goods, toys, &c. Look, everybody, for a nice stock.
Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin has taken ill last Saturday evening and has been confined to his room ever since. We are glad to learn, however, that he is better and will be soon.

Mr. W. H. Owen and wife, of Owensboro, and Mrs. E. Johnson, of Terra Haute, Ind., a sister of Mrs. Owen, are visiting Mrs. M. A. Thomas, the mother of Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Capt. Wm. Dix, of Breckinridge county, is visiting her children here, three of whom are pupils of Hartford College. She is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Morton.

Mr. T. T. Ashby, now a citizen of Warrick county, Ind., is visiting relatives and friends in his old home neighborhood, near Centertown. He reports crops and business moderately good.

Mr. Charles Blacklock, a former citizen of this county, but now a resident of Gibson county, Ind., has been visiting relatives and friends in this county the past week. He reports times pretty good in old Hoosier.

Three brothers, Rev. David Whittinghill, of Hopkins county, Mr. Remus Whittinghill, of Breckinridge county, and Mr. Wm. Whittinghill, of Ohio county, met here last week. These gentlemen are growing old, their ages aggregating 195.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The silvery sound of the new bell will soon be heard pealing forth from the College belfry.

The standing of Mr. J. W. Bishop in honor-roll last week should have been 9, 9, instead of 9, 5.

Prof. J. S. Glenn and brother were summoned home by telegraph last Friday to the bedside of a sick mother.

Miss Lizzie Morton, teacher of the Primary Department, paid a visit to her mother in Paradise, returning Monday.

The students are advancing very rapidly in their studies this month, which their reports in honor-roll will show next month.

The little boys and girls are counting the days when their dreams of wax dolls, oranges, candy, etc., will be realized by a visit from Santa Claus.

Miss Grace Thomson, music teacher, who has been suffering for several days with a sore arm, is, we are glad to learn, able to attend to the duties of her department.

It is rather amusing to see with what earnestness and fervor some students are exerting themselves to resolve that knowledge which is daily imparted to them contrasted with others who do not seem to care whether their reports ever rise above zero.

The subject of debate at the Claytonian Society last Friday night was, "Resolved, that education is for the best interests of both sexes." W. J. Dunn championed the affirmative and Chas. R. Robertson championed the negative. After a lengthy argument for and against the subject, a decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative.

Violins and bows for sale cheap, at Thomas & Kimbley's.

For genuine N. O. molasses go to the Red Front.

Mr. A. T. Nall has accepted a position in the drug store of Messrs. Thomas & Kimbley.

Beef, pork, sausage, chickens and turkeys constantly on hand at the Red Front. Patronage solicited.

If you want a nice box filled with nice paper and envelopes, call on Thomas & Kimbley.

The largest lively owner in Moine uses 'Kendall's' Spavin Cure with the best success. Read their advertisement.

It is the universal cry all over the land that 'Kendall's Spavin Cure' is a positive cure. Read their advertisement.

A large assortment of box paper and envelopes suitable for Christmas and New Year's gifts, at Thomas & Kimbley's.

Mr. W. D. Barnard, of Corvallis, and Miss Drusilla Brown, daughter of Mr. A. G. Brown, were married yesterday at the residence of the bride's father.

Strayed—From Beaver Dam, September 1880, one red heifer one year old past. Marked—crop off right and underdevelop in left ear. Any one giving information as to her whereabouts will be paid for their trouble.

JOHN CHINN, Beaver Dam.
A lady friend, mother of a good-sized family of boys, told us the other day that nowhere in Louisville had she seen so many nice overcoats and suits for youths, boys' and children, and at such low prices than at J. W. White & Co., corner of Third and Market streets.

"And," said she, "I advise every mother or father of a boy to buy his clothes there."

Rev. David Whittinghill, of Madisonville, preached to a large and attentive congregation at the M. E. Church last Sunday. It was Dr. W. P. Bennett's appointment, but he gave way to Bro. Whittinghill. Dr. Bennett preached as usual Sunday night.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Ohio County Fair Company, held Saturday, Dec. 4, 1880, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz: Sam K. Cox, President; James A. Thomas, Vice-President; Z. Wayne Griffin, Treasurer; A. T. Nall, Secretary. Directors—Dr. Sam L. Berry, Hon. E. Dudley Walker, Hon. Sam E. Hill, Dan F. Tracy and L. P. Worcester.

Monday was another big day in town.

Buy your table supplies at the Red Front.

Home—In Greenville, December 6, 1880, to the wife of J. F. Hardman, a daughter.

Gross Williams has a supply of Royal's Galvanic Batteries on hand. Try one.

A son of Thos. Lloyd, near Fordville, died last Saturday night of Typhoid. He was about 24 years old.

The present rise in Rough Creek affords saw log men a good opportunity of getting their logs to market.

A Christmas entertainment under the auspices of the Sabbath School at this place will be given to the little boys and girls.

The Red Front has just received a full stock of family groceries and will sell extremely low for cash or country produce.

Mr. W. P. Haden has resigned the office of Town Marshal. The city clerk has not as yet made any appointment to fill the vacancy.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend a hop at Spring Lake, Saturday night, December 25, 1880, given by Mr. S. Edwards.

The Social Society met at the residence of Mrs. Jarboe last Saturday night. We were not present, but learn that the evening was passed very pleasantly.

A protracted meeting, under the auspices of Rev. J. S. McDaniel, is in progress at Liberty Church. Considerable interest has been manifested during the meeting.

The wrecking of a freight train on the P. & E. Railroad, last Sunday, caused the up passenger to be 12 hours late. The passengers for Hartford did not arrive until Monday morning.

The local meeting last week that D. F. Tracy had bought G. J. Bean & Son's blacksmith shop, were informed was a mistake. They will still carry on the blacksmithing business as usual.

Mr. John R. Walker is teaching school at Wilson's Mills. He has, we learn, a very interesting school, and is giving great satisfaction. Prof. W. B. Hayward visited his school last week and was invited to lecture on education at night, which he did, and had quite a large audience to hear him who appreciated his lecture and thanked him for the same.

We received a long communication from Caneyville, this week, containing several items of society news and personals, but the writer fails to furnish us the name of her, him or themselves, hence we leave it out. We require the name of every communicant, not with a view of publishing it, but simply as an evidence of good faith. We have never deviated from this rule but once or twice, and will never do so again.

We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of H. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit, Mich., which appears in our columns. They are one of the largest and most reliable firms engaged in the seed business in the United States, and their seeds have justly earned great popularity by always being fresh and just as represented. Our readers will do well to avail themselves of their offer to send their beautiful Seed Annual free to all wishing to purchase seeds.

Anderson's Bazaar has just received the job lot of goods referred to in the Herald two weeks ago. They consist of ladies' and misses' hose, gloves, handkerchiefs, ladies' and gents' woolen underwear, men's and boys' caps, and many other goods. We are not judges of all the above articles, but it really seemed to us as we looked through them that they are being offered at about half price, and we do know that men's undershirts at 35 cents is very cheap.

—F. D. BARNUM, (late Kitts & Werne) Cor. 4th and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., invites an examination of an unequalled stock of Watches, Jewelry, Clocks, Silver & Plated ware of best makers. Prices and quality guaranteed.

—Two brothers, Alfred U. Phillips and — Phillips had a regular old-time hand-to-hand encounter, at Fordville, last Thursday evening. They were separated before any serious damage was done. Some old dispute was the cause of the fight. The way they swung was enough to shame old Satan himself. Oh, what a sad thing to beat and bruise each other up, and still more so it becomes when brothers engage in it. Shame on you, men. Go at once and settle the feud. In honor of the mother that bore you, of the father that raised you, let each conclude that he was in the wrong, and ask the other's forgiveness, and hereafter dwell together in bonds of brotherly love.

—Mr. Keith, of the Cloverport Marble works, erected on the 4th inst., a monument in Barnett's Creek Church to the grave of Mr. George Hoover that is a model of beauty and the finest piece of workmanship in this county. It stands twelve feet high, and has the family name in raised letters on the marble base, and the Masonic emblem in the center of the spire, and a beautiful urn on the pedestal. The work was done by Prof. J. M. Telow. Mr. Hoover was a worthy man, and had acquired considerable property by industry and his heirs have shown their appreciation of his worth by the erection of this fine monument. The same firm a few weeks ago erected two slab monuments for Mrs. Wm. Hoover, and lately one for Mrs. Franklin Wallace, and one for Mrs. J. K. Mitchell, all giving entire satisfaction.

—New lot of hats, at R. P. Rowe & Bro's.

—Headquarters for extra hides—Red Front.

—Cheapest overcoats in town, at R. P. Rowe & Bro's.

Call at the Red Front and see the good things to eat.

Go to Bob & Jack's for pure liquors, wines, beer, &c.

Red Front wants your custom. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Bob & Jack keep the best brands of whiskies, wines, beer, &c. Call on them.

Mr. H. M. Daniel, of the firm of Daniel & Barnes, Caneyville, Ky., is in town attending to some legal business. Mr. Daniel is a native of Ohio county and one of the five business men of Caneyville.

Samuel H. Irwin, of Lye Creek, Colfax co., New Mexico, says: "If my wife would quit work, as she should at her age, she would live years a monument to the magic influence of the 'Only Lung Pad.'"

Not long since we overheard a young gentleman as he repeated the following to his wife would be adorned: "All that my best or wildest dream, in fancy's dream could ever be, in my life's dream, in my life's dream, in my life's dream."

Samuel H. Irwin, of Lye Creek, Colfax co., New Mexico, says: "The 'Only Lung Pad' has done more for my wife than all the gallons of Cod Liver Oil, French or American, she has taken, or all the Doctor's medicines she has used."

Dr. G. W. McGraw, Dentist, will be at Rockport, Ohio county, on the 13th and 15th days of this month, where those wanting any thing in the dentistry line can have it done with satisfaction both as to price and work. He will be at Beaver Dam the remainder of this week.

Mr. Andrew Williams is teaching the school at Walton's Creek this season. He is a worthy young man and a good teacher. He keeps a record of the standing of the scholars and makes monthly reports of the same for publication. See report for November in this issue.

Mr. J. S. Leisure, of Centertown, is so afflicted with phthisis that he has concluded to turn his mill contract over to his brother, C. W. Leisure, and sell his property in Centertown and move to some other place in hopes of being benefited by a change of location. His property there can be bought cheap.

McGill, the Photographer, has just returned from a visit to his family at Owensboro, and authorizes us to say that he will pull up stakes after court. He will advise our friends who want pictures to take advantage of the present opportunity of having their work done, as such an opportunity may not present itself again soon.

A musical and minstrel concert, under the auspices of the Hartford United Band, will be given at Court hall on Thursday and Friday nights, December 23d and 24th, 1880. The entertainment will consist of band and string music, solos, terpsichorean, and other things, &c.

Taken up at my premises, 3 1/2 miles from Hartford, on the Hartford and Pleasant road, a red and white pided steer, two years old. Marked with two splits in right and one in the left ear. The owner can have the same by proving property and paying charges. J. K. Oatisbury, Hartford, Ky.

Look at this and believe it when you read it, that positively with the beginning of the year 1881 we will sell strictly for the cash. If we refuse you credit it will be your fault for asking us. Also, if the accounts already made are not paid at once, they will be put out for collection, so take fair warning. WILLIAMS BROS.

The Star Hotel on corner of Frederick and Water streets, Owensboro, gave way last Saturday night and fell to the ground, but fortunately only one person was hurt. The building was a two and one-half story brick, and was kept by Messrs. Hughes & Alexander. There were seven other inmates, all of whom escaped unhurt. The hotel and furniture are a total loss.

All Burned Up.
The dwelling house and contents of Rev. James Stewart, living a few miles north of Hartford, was entirely consumed by fire last Thursday morning about three or four o'clock. Mr. Robert Stewart and family were living with the father, James Stewart, but all were from home. The old gentleman and wife were spending a night with a son-in-law, Peter Shown, on No creek, and Robert Stewart, with his family, had gone to spend a night with his father-in-law, Samuel Hoover. The fire was, as they thought, made safe before leaving home. Two of Dr. Geo. W. Chapman's sons passed the house about midnight and saw no sign of fire or light. Mrs. Brooks, who lives in sight, saw a light about or in the house about ten o'clock at night. There are some suspicious of incendiarism, but no circumstances sufficient to warrant an opinion of that kind as yet. There were about thirty bushels of wheat, and about eighty gallons of molasses, which of course were lost. We deeply sympathize with the Messrs. Stewart in their loss for it is a severe blow, leaving them nothing at all but the land. They neglected one highly important matter a little too long, viz, fire insurance. Every home and contents should be insured in some good company. The little it costs will be a few hundred dollars helps out very much. When you conclude to insure, remember that Barrett & Bro., Hartford, Ky., represent as good companies as there are in the world and insure policies on safe and liberal terms. Call on them at once and have your property insured.

Court Notes.

Commonwealth cases tried since our last report:

William Shroeder, for putting down fence, fined five dollars. G. B. Van Nort, for selling liquor to a minor, two cases, fined fifty dollars each case. Elijah Crow, for carrying concealed weapons, fined twenty-five dollars and ten days imprisonment in county jail. Elijah and Henry Crow, for breach of peace, Elijah Crow fined twelve dollars and ninety cents, Henry Crow cleared.

Indictments returned this term of the Court which stand for trial, are set as follows:

R. N. Fitzhugh, for horse stealing, two cases, set for 15th day of the term. Bill McKillop, for malicious striking and wounding another, set for 15th day. John Harris, for murder, set for 15th day. Cyrus Bates, for shooting with intent to kill, set for the 15th day. R. S. Fitzgerald, for cutting with intent to kill, set for 15th day. Thomas Carly, for destroying timber, set for the 15th day.

Allowances were made to the following named bidders:

Curran Rogers, Wm. M. Coats, Jas. M. Coats, Walker Haynes, Henry E. Haynes, Sam'l Kelley, Geo. W. Hoops, Margaret E. Shaver, Ida J. Westcott, John James, Melissa Wilson, John T. Romans, Mary E. Chapman, Margaret Morton, David Jannigan, Mary Ann Jackson and Vey Green.

The Grand Jury adjourned last Friday, after a ten days' session. They found thirty-five true bills against the following persons:

Bum Collins, for selling liquor without legal authority. Bail fifty dollars. M. L. Heverin, selling liquor to a minor. Bail fifty dollars.

C. Heverin, selling liquor to a minor. Bail fifty dollars.

W. H. Marrell, keeping a tippling house. Bail sixty dollars.

John Ryan, selling liquor to a minor. Bail fifty dollars.

Wm. McGill, carrying concealed a deadly weapon. Bail one hundred dollars.

Robert Porter, same offense and bail. Clint Carpenter, same offense and bail.

Jordan Evans, same offense and bail. Luther Ward, same offense and bail. Ben Hudson, same offense and bail. Elijah Crow, same offense and bail.

B. S. Johns, same offense and bail. John Ryan, breach of the peace. Bail twenty-five dollars.

Henry and Elijah Crow, same offense. Bail each fifty dollars.

Wm. McCann, W. F. Whittinghill and John Whittinghill, grand larceny. Bail one hundred dollars each.

Wm. Hunsaker, same offense. Bail two hundred and fifty dollars.

Henry and Elijah Crow, resisting an officer. Bail one hundred dollars each. Ben Hudson, assault and battery. Bail one hundred dollars.

Sena Brown, fornication. Bail fifty dollars.

O. R. Chapman, failing to keep road in order.

R. A. Stevens, same offense.

Jordan Evans, malicious shooting with intent to kill. Bail two hundred and fifty dollars.

Columbus and Buck Dennis, alarming and disturbing another. Bail two hundred and fifty dollars each.

B. S. Johns, disturbing religious worship. Bail one hundred dollars.

Ben Carter, adultery. Bail fifty dollars.

R. N. Fitzhugh, horse stealing, two indictments.

Same, cutting and wounding with intent to kill. Bail two hundred and fifty dollars.

Bill McKillop, malicious striking and wounding another. Bail three hundred dollars.

Dr. Cyrus Bates, shooting at another. Bail two hundred and fifty dollars.

John Harris, murder. Bail five hundred dollars.

Thomas Carly, cutting timber on the land of another. Bail one hundred dollars.

Alonso Taylor, perverting gaming. Bail two hundred dollars.

Ben warrants were awarded in each case except the two against road overseers, upon which summonses were ordered to be issued.

Hon. S. E. Hill has been elected as special judge in the case of Ogden vs. Ogden. This is a very important case, transferred from the Daviess Circuit Court, and will be called for trial on the 20th day of the term, which will be December 14th. Judge Little was one of the attorneys in this suit prior to his election as judge, and hence is not qualified to sit as judge in the case. The suit of John D. Whittinghill vs. his Uncle, Wm. Whittinghill, for malicious prosecution has been amicably compromised by the parties.

The Commonwealth vs. Anthony Maiden, for shooting with intent to kill, came on last Friday and the trial commenced Monday, which resulted in his acquittal. Brother and Ferguson had gone to Maiden's to execute a search warrant which the court held to be illegal, and Maiden was acquitted upon the plea that he had a right to defend his premises from an illegal search being made by his enemies.

E. P. Chapman, for cutting in sudden heat and passion was tried Monday and acquitted upon the plea of self-defense.

The following persons indicted this court have given bond, viz, M. L. Heverin, C. Heverin, Sena Brown, Dr. Cyrus Bates, J. Harris, A. Taylor, Thos. Carly, and Henry Crow, who was indicted for resisting an officer. B. S. Fitzgerald and Bill McKillop are in jail, and the others indicted have not yet been apprehended.

Four Sick News.
Dec. 4th, 1880.

Editor Herald:
Farmers are very much behind in corn gathering, the crop of which is light and worth forty cents per bushel. Late wheat looks tender and it is estimated by some that it will do better than early sown.

Some of the tobacco was frozen in the leaves and is considered considerably damaged. Henry Wallace, son of H. Wallace of Hartford county spent the past three weeks in this vicinity visiting relatives and friends.

It was sad to hear of uncle Jimmy Stewart's loss by fire and it will be but right for the liberal souls in this part of the world to help the old man some for he has always been liberal and kind to the unfortunate.

Mr. P. Hicks is still making molasses on No creek.

Mr. Jonathan Weller is attending school in Michigan.

Mr. J. C. Hoover, of Hoover Hill, closed his school at Alexander's on the 2nd inst. He taught penmanship only, and had forty-four scholars. John is a good penman and teacher and every pupil learned rapidly. He now takes a place in a drug store at Pleasant Ridge.

There have been three weddings at one house in the past year—widow Cain's daughters, Miss Adeline Cain and James Hayner, Miss Teresa Cain and Warren Mills, and Miss Charlotte Cain and Ashford Mills. Of course these Mills are now engaged in grinding corn.

Mr. J. E. T. Ward has sold his farm on Rough creek to Mr. D. L. Smith, and has bought the Lindsay Woodward near J. W. Barnett's and is building on the same.

Mr. H. Newcomb and J. E. T. Ward each have a hog that tips the beam at 200 pounds. Each claims his hog to be the heavier.

S. T. Wallace and wife, near Beola, spent two weeks in Hartford county, recently and report a nice time. They were the guests of Harter Wallace and family.

Mr. Campbell of Indiana, mother of C. R. Campbell of this county, is spending the winter with her son and her brother, W. H. Newcomb.

C. R. Campbell and Mark Newcomb were visiting their friends and relatives in Hoosier last week.

Miss Belle Campbell, of Rockport, this county, was the guest of George Mapp's family last week. Miss Mary B. Mapp's returning home with her.

Mrs. Angeline Woodward and family, who have been visiting relatives in this county, returned to their home in Missouri.

Mr. R. P. Crabtree is quite sick at this writing.

Mrs. Amanda Paul, wife of Berry Paul, of McCracken county, is visiting the family of T. D. Patterson.

Wonderfully Interesting.
"Brick" Pomeroy has made a great hit with his new paper, The Great West, which he started in Denver last June, and which he sent to more than 25,000 subscribers to his old paper, Pioneer's Democrat, after it was suspended, following the forgeries of his partner. The Great West is a handsome eight-page paper, illustrated each week with views of Colorado mines, mountains, scenery, etc., and is all in all a wonderfully interesting paper, with its Saturday Night chapters, its valuable editorial letters describing that rich country, its letters from the people, its red-hot editorials, crisp items, wit, agility, Home Corner chat, news, etc. It is now a red-hot, slap-dab, independent paper, above all party lines, but is death against United States bonds and all robberies of the poor. It is sent one year for $2, or six copies one year for $9. Since "Brick" made his big strike in the mines, he is making a paper more lively than ever. Address, M. M. Pomeroy, Denver, Colorado, and send for the paper if you wish something you will read from end to end.

"Kentucky Juice."
This new variety of Peach was originated by me in Hopkins county, and bore its first fruit in 1878, ripening from June the 5th to 10th. I grew it from the seed of a bluish peach. It is very large for so early a peach, nearly round, skin a yellowish white, splashed nearly all over with bright red, very rich, juicy and highly flavored, seed very small, a free strong grower and good bearer, free from any sign of disease.

This is undoubtedly the earliest peach known of in the West, ripening one week before Amos's June, two weeks before Early Beates, from one to two weeks before the Alexandra, and I can say none of them are any prettier than mine.

The quarrel between Tammany and the Tildenites of New York as to who is responsible for the loss of that State to the Democrats, is exposing some of the party secrets. Neither faction seems to spare the party where it can make a point against the other. One of the questions Democrats have frequently asked each other since the election is, "Who is responsible for the nomination of English at Cincinnati?" As a general thing, even the men who were the prominent actors in the Cincinnati Convention could not answer this question. After Hancock was nominated there was a desire among leading Democrats to put Senator McDonald on the ticket for the second place. He was rather abruptly approached on the subject, and replied that he did not want the nomination. The men who were anxious to nominate him, however, on the ground that he was the strongest Democrat in Indiana, felt confident of success. They said to others who were co-operating with them: "McDonald does not want the nomination, but if the Convention puts him on the ticket by acclamation he will accept." The plan to nominate Senator McDonald was being arranged by Northern Democrats, the delegates from the South generally declining to take an active part in the nomination of a ticket. When the Convention was ready to ballot for a Vice-President, the delegates who promised to put Senator McDonald through, were surprised at seeing Adams lead off unanimously for English, followed by Arkansas, and once after the other States coming first in alphabetical order. The thing had gone so far that the other States had to follow, and English was nominated. Now, the Tammany leaders say that Chairman Farnham, of the National Committee, put up the quiet arrangement by which Mr. English was chosen through the Convention; that Farnham made his agreement with English and then whispered to the Southern delegates that the latter was the man to make Indiana safe. Tammany gave further aid and abetment to the nomination of English, and even went so far as to suggest the subject.

The religion of the future is not to be one of creeds and ciphers, if we are to believe Rev. Monro D. Conway, who said in a recent lecture:

"The time is coming when the sum and substance of religion will be to take the love and gentle, when there will be no man being who will come to look for a higher religion to preserve the happiness and wisdom of the world. World not the power and wealth that has devastated the world with temples, is sufficient to create it with happy, beautiful homes if it is regarded as the proper object. Humanity has its scheme of salvation in the escape from the present evil. A legend runs that when Mary was traveling in Egypt and was weary of carrying the child, a third land grew out of its support. So it is in the religion of humanity; wherever there is trouble comes a sustaining hand. The religion of humanity, Mr. Conway concluded, thus not the disadvantage of being a new sect. It has been in existence for many ages. I believe it is the only religion that does exist. Whenever there is a Protestant movement and they are occurring always, we hear the cry, 'not Christianity, but Christ; not Mohammedanism, but Mahomet; not Buddhism, but Buddha.' It is because the teacher taught the doctrine of humanity, but the sects borrowing his name have taken the form of the forces he combated. There never was a prophet who did not teach love and there never was a system that did not teach wrath and vengeance. People are growing ashamed of their dogmas and dwell on the sweet parables and the humanity of the teachers. So steadily acknowledge and science advance supernatural terrors will become more and more grotesque. That Christ was a man and not a thundergod will be the doctrine of Christianity. The miracles will be discarded and people will say, when told that they were once believed, 'how curious.' The hatred of pain, the horror of asceticism, the dejection of evil, a passionate love for the right and for beauty, a higher virtue, an enthusiasm for the good of his fellow-men—these are some of the attributes of the religion of humanity which will flourish when all the petty creeds are able to smile at."

Boys and Smoking.

A timely note of warning is sounded by the New York Times against the growing evil of smoking among boys. It states that "careful experiments lately made by a physician of repute prove that the practice is very injurious." Of thirty-five boys, aged from nine to fifteen, who had been in the habit of smoking, in twenty-seven he found obvious, hurtful effects; twenty-two had various disorders of the circulation and digestion, palpitation of the heart, and more or less craving for strong drink; and twelve had slight ulceration of the mouth. All were treated for weakness and nervousness, but successfully only after they had relinquished smoking. The Times says of this smoking:

"One of the worst effects is the prostration of an appetite for food, which, limited, is not confined to the young, at which young persons are better able to manage. Where boys drink to excess they are almost invariably smokers, and it is very rare to find a non-smoker of spirits who is not addicted to tobacco. Men who want to give up drinking usually have to give up smoking at the same time, for they say that a cigar or a pipe generally excites a desire for liquor very hard to control."

The great increase of smoking among boys in recent years is one of the alarming tendencies of our time. There ought at once to be inaugurated a vigorous anti-tobacco crusade throughout the land.

The official popular vote for President shows a plurality for Garfield of only 5,401 in a total vote of 9,125,593. That is pretty close work, and shows how equally the people are divided.

There were 1,065,849 Republican votes cast in the South against 1,586,425 Democratic votes.

Hancock received one million majority of the white vote of the country. The black end of the Bi-colored party is what saved Garfield.

The total vote of the Southern States was 21,136 more than the vote thrown in 1876. The increase over 1876 in the Northern States was 759,272.

The Republicans received a popular majority in the Northern States of 532,880 votes. The Democrats had a popular majority in the South of 525,578 votes. —Kennettville Courier.

McKenzie did one thing a few years ago which ought to secure him a seat Congress as long as he wants to go. He had quinine put on the free list and thus reduced the price of this invaluable drug at least one-half. He is a bold, resolute, able member, and does honor to his district. —Henderson Reporter.

A corps of U. S. Engineers will begin about the 15th inst. to survey Trade Water river with a view to having locks and dams erected so as to make the river navigable. This is another move in the right direction brought about by our never dying representative, Hon. J. A. McKenzie. If the report of the engineers is favorable McKenzie will get that appropriation certain.
